Mr. Daniel K. Moore
Chief
Economic Section
American Institute in Taipei
Taipei Office
7, Lane 134, Hsin Yi Road, Sec. 3
Taipei, Taiwan

Dear Mr. Moore:

This is in reference to AIT's letter (B-365) dated June 21, 2006, requesting a written confirmation of assurances for Defense Trade Controls CASE #980274 from Chun Shan Institute of Science and Technology (CSIST).

In reply, I wish to inform you that CSIST has agreed to comply with the terms of requested assurances which include:

A) The items will not be used in the design, development, manufacture, launch, or operation of any delivery system for weapons of mass destruction or in the conversion of any other delivery system for weapons of mass destruction;

B) The items will be used only for the purpose stated and such use will not be modified nor the items themselves modified or replicated without prior consent of the American Institute in Taiwan.

C) Neither the items, nor replicas, nor derivatives thereof, will be retransferred without the consent of the American Institute in Taiwan; and,

D) For the purpose of these assurances, a delivery system for weapons of destruction is agreed to include any complete rocket system (including ballistic missiles, space launch vehicles, and sounding rockets) or unmanned air vehicle system (including cruise missile systems, target drones and reconnaissance drones) that are:

--1) intended to deliver nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons; or

--2) capable of delivering at least a 500 kg payload to a range of at least 300 km.

Enclosed please find a copy of the written confirmation of assurances provided by CSIST. I would appreciate it if you could forward the above-mentioned information to the authorities concerned for the issuance of export permit.

Thank you for your attention in the matter.

Sincerely yours,

Terry Ting
Deputy Secretary General

Enclosure: as stated.
